AXIS

Axis aims to provide a comprehensive picture of young people's involvement or risk of exposure to key risky behaviours. Through the collation and analysis of intelligence, the project has an evolving database used to map information, inform engagement and intervention with young people and prevent escalation.

Do you have concerns about a child you know that could be involved in or at risk of:

- Supplying drugs • Sexual Exploitation
- Missing from home or care • Serious Youth Violence

Withdrawn from friends, teachers and education

Over hearing concerning information about home life / activities outside of school

Hanging around with a different crowd

Change in behaviour attitude
