

A Passion for the Performing Arts

On Friday 4th February, Dance students from Uxbridge College visited Rosedale College to showcase a number of mesmerising performances to the BTEC Performing Arts students from across the Trust.

This spectacular show was followed by a Question and Answer session as well as a workshop. Throughout these sessions, students at Parkside gained a wealth of knowledge about different dance forms, before rehearsing a dance routine where they demonstrated a commitment to its creative and technical standards, and excelled in displaying their versatility throughout! Our students left with a strong passion and renewed motivation for the Performing Arts.
